

I am disappointed that Sinclair is being permitted to show such a questionable program as "Stolen Honor" without being forced to give equal time to the opposing view. This is obviously a political move since only stations in targeted areas are being forced to air it. Democracy can not survive if people are constantly fed one side of the story. Please step in.